Baby Rights VS Animal Rights: No Contest

By: Eugene A. Santoro

Have you seen the commercials on television showing tortured animals, asking us to stop eating animals; stop wearing animal furs; refrain from buying new pets, consider adoption instead; become a vegetarian.

Organizations such as Peta (People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals); ADL (Animal Defense League); CAFT (Coalition to Abolish the Fur Trade); MARC (Massachusetts Animal Rights Coalition) to name four out of thirty six (or more) Animal rights organizations. There are many organizations to prevent “Dining on”, “Wearing of”, or “Experimenting with” animals.

I share ones pity for the inhumane treatment of animals; my family has been blessed with loving animals; as a matter of fact we once shared our home with a menagerie of animals, one dog, two cats, and a parakeet. One who refrains from the consummation of meat is known as a “Vegan” or a “Vegetarian.” I have fished but never hunted; I dislike many vegetables and also there are parts of animal food I would never imagine eating. People eat what is available. Can you imagine an Eskimo sitting down to eat a dish of vegetable soup? Eskimo’s eat what their environment offers them. Would we have teeth for tearing and chewing if we were meant to eat mashed potatoes? Would we need teeth?

Everywhere in history books and the Bible we read how food consisted of creatures from land, sea, and air. If a vegan were on the move and fighting a war, there is no time to grow vegetables; on the other hand animal food and sea food were abundantly available.

I believe we eat by tradition and by what is available; would a vegan refuse meat when the alternative is hunger or death? If you are a vegan and believe that animals have souls you are right, but did you know that all organic food has a soul. Sound nuts, it is true according to my references, the human soul is referred to as an “Intellectual Soul,” The animal soul is referred to as a “Sensitive Soul;” and the “Vegetative Soul” is the Soul of a vegetable. Look it up for yourself.

Now, let’s get back to the main subject of the article. Time and time again I see advertisements showing the horrible wounds of animals, and starving children. When was the last time you saw the remains of an aborted child? Have you seen a baby squirming to escape the doctor's probing tongs, babies torn from their mother's womb, burned with corrosive chemicals, murdered partially out of the birth canal, having its brains vacuumed out of its skull while it is still alive? Now science has proved that babies have feeling. You can support whomever you choose; I just want equal time. People run to save an animal in pain; who runs to the human babies?

St. Lawrence - Martyr

Feastday: August 10

Saint Lawrence was one of seven deacons who were in charge of giving help to the poor and the needy. When a persecution broke out, Pope St. Sixtus was condemned to death. As he was led to execution, Lawrence followed him weeping, "Father, where are you going without your deacon?" he said. "I am not leaving you, my son," answered the Pope. "in three days you will follow me." Full of joy, Lawrence gave to the poor the rest of the money he had on hand and even sold expensive vessels to have more to give away.

The Prefect of Rome, a greedy pagan, thought the Church had a great fortune hidden away. So he ordered Lawrence to bring the Church's treasure to him. The Saint said he would, in three days. Then he went through the city and gathered together all the poor and sick people supported by the Church. When he showed them to the Prefect, he said: "This is the Church's treasure!" In great anger, the Prefect condemned Lawrence to a slow, cruel death. The Saint was tied on top of an iron grill over a slow fire that roasted his flesh little by little, but Lawrence was burning with so much love of God that he almost did not feel the flames. In fact, God gave him so much strength and joy that he even joked. "Turn me over," he said to the judge. "I'm done on this side!" And just before he died, he said, "It's cooked enough now." Then he prayed that the city of Rome might be converted to Jesus and that the Catholic Faith might spread all over the world. After that, he went to receive the martyr's reward. Saint Lawrence's feast day is August 10th.

2013 Could Set Record For Number of Pro-Life State Laws Stopping Abortions

As Texas moves a bill forward that would ban late-term abortions and could put some abortion facilities out of business that can't follow basic health and safety laws, abortion activists are lamenting how states are passing so many pro-life laws.

A pro-abortion group that is a former Planned Parenthood affiliate and still receives funding for the abortion business, says the number of laws approved this year by state legislatures is ahead of 2012 and could break the record number of pro-life laws set in 2011. <http://www.lifenews.com/2013/07/11/2013-could-set-record-for-number-of-pro-life-state-laws-stopping-abortions/>

Capitol Hill today to rally against a Congressional bill that would ban abortions after 20 weeks of pregnancy.

Cecile Richards Can't Say if Late-Term Abortions on Healthy Babies is Wrong

The typical mantra for Planned Parenthood and other abortion proponents who want late-term abortions to be kept legal is to appeal to hard cases.

The rationale usually involves a woman who desperately wanted her unborn child but, because of some ultra-rare medical condition that may or may not necessitate an abortion, the mother decides to take her baby's life instead of hold out hope or seek medical treatment for her or her child. <http://www.lifenews.com/2013/07/11/cecile-richards-cant-say-if-late-term-abortions-on-healthy-babies-is-wrong/>

Daughter Proud of Her Mother for Aborting Her Older Sibling

In a New York Times opinion piece this past Sunday, Beth Matusoff Merfish shared the story of her own mother's abortion and how proud and admiring of her mother the abortion made her.

Prefacing the story with an extended lament about the current state of affairs regarding the success of pro-life legislation in Texas, Merfish explains that the story of her mother's abortion is in some ways a rite of passage in her family: her mother, Sherry Matusoff Merfish (an avid abortion activist), shared her abortion story with each of her daughters shortly before they left for college. <http://www.lifenews.com/2013/07/11/daughter-proud-of-her-mother-for-aborting-her-older-sibling/>

Shirley & Marcy

A mother was concerned about her kindergarten son, Timmy, walking to school.

He didn't want his mother to walk with him.

She wanted to give him the feeling that he had some independence but yet know that he was safe.

So she had an idea of how to handle it.

She asked a neighbor if she would please follow him to school in the mornings, staying at a distance, so he probably wouldn't notice her.

The neighbor said that since she was up early with her toddler anyway, it would be a good way for them to get some exercise as well, so she agreed.

The next school day, the neighbor and her little girl set out following behind Timmy as he walked to school with another neighbor girl he knew.

She did this for the whole week. As the two walked and chatted, kicking stones and twigs, Timmy's little friend noticed the same lady was following them as she seemed to do every day all week.

Finally she said to Timmy, 'Have you noticed that lady following us to school all week? Do you know her?'

Timmy nonchalantly replied, 'Yeah, I know who she is.' The little girl said, 'Well, who is she?' 'That's just Shirley Goodnest,' Timmy replied, 'and her daughter Marcy ...'

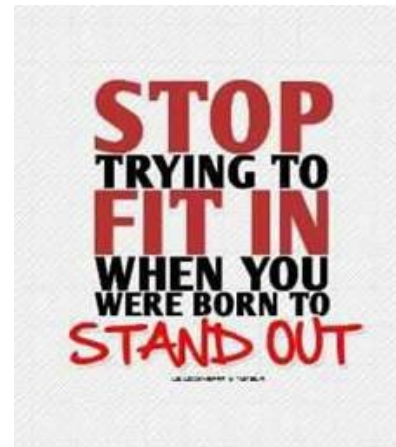

'Shirley Goodnest? Who is she and why is she following us?'

'Well,' Timmy explained, 'every night my Mum makes me say the 23rd Psalm with my prayers, 'cuz she worries about me so much.

And in the Psalm, it says, 'Shirley Goodnest and Marcy shall follow me all the days of my life', so I guess I'll just have to get used to it!'

The Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord make His face shine upon you, and be gracious unto you; the Lord lift His countenance upon you, and give you peace.

May Shirley Goodnest and Marcy be with you today and always.

The Bridge

A man on his Harley was riding along a California beach when suddenly the sky clouded above his head and, in a booming voice, God said, 'because you have tried to be faithful to me in all ways, I will grant you one wish..'

The biker pulled over and said, 'Build a bridge to Hawaii so I can ride over anytime I want.'

God replied, 'Your request is materialistic; think of the enormous challenges for that kind of undertaking; the supports required reaching the bottom of the Pacific and the concrete and steel it would take! I can do it, but it is hard for me to justify your desire for worldly things. Take a little more time and think of something that could possibly help mankind.'

The biker thought about it for a long time. Finally, he said, 'God, I wish that I and all men, could understand women; I want to know how she feels inside, what she's thinking when she gives me the silent treatment, why she cries, what she means when she says nothing's wrong, why she snaps and complains when I try to help, and how I can make a woman truly happy.

God replied: About that bridge, do you want two lanes or four lanes?

when you are with God, there's always a rainbow waiting.
