Do you Love Me?

John 21:15-17)

15 When they had eaten, Jesus said to Simon Peter, 'Simon son of John, do you love me more than these others do?' He answered, 'Yes, Lord, you know I love you.' Jesus said to him 'Feed my lambs.'

Jesus does not mean we should set-up a soup kitchen, what he wants to know is, if Peter loves him, he should feed his brothers with the Word of God. Some of our clergy are not doing the job they swore to do; they are feeding themselves from the lures of this world and not leading us to Jesus. People are looking for direction, what they are getting is confusion. Instead of changing the church to meet the changes of the world, we should be trying to change the world to focus on the Father, the Word, and the Giver of Life. The clergy, in my opinion, should be teaching us how to avoid the temptations of Satan. As Christians, we all should know that God loves us.

16 A second time he said to him, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' He replied, 'Yes, Lord, you know I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Look after my sheep.'

Jesus is not asking Peter to supply his sheep with a safe haven with water and grass, and free of predators. Jesus wants Peter to guide us and lead us onto a path toward Him. In my opinion, the four marks of the church are being disfigured. One, Holy, Catholic, Apostolic Church, is being watered down and becoming: Not ONE but ALL, not HOLY but NICE, not CATHOLIC but CHRISTIAN, not APOSTOLIC but DEMOCRATIC. Jesus wants Peter to keep us safe by preparing us for the unknown; He wants us to be fed with the entire word of God not just selective fuzzy tranquil words; He wants us to be safe from the evil one.

17 Then he said to him a third time, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' Peter was hurt that he asked him a third time, "Do you love me?" and said, 'Lord, you know everything; you know I love you. Jesus said to him "Feed my sheep."

Jesus is not asking Peter to order pizza or bagels and lox.

Jesus is asking Peter to feed his people with the Word of God. Jesus is asking Peter if he loves him unconditionally. Jesus knows how much Peter loves him. Peter, being intelligent and with free will, must make his own decision. Is Peter strong enough to keep his faith in God? Jesus allows Peter to experience the loss of faith when Peter denies Jesus three times. Are we denying Jesus? Are we turning our backs on him because he is interfering with our way of life? Are we given only one side of the story? We seem to prepare for everything, fire, gas, carbon monoxide, and our vehicles have all sorts of protection to keep us safe. We are being fed, but only the potatoes, not the meat.

What this article is pointing out is that many changes have infiltrated the church; many unbelievable tragedies have occurred since the 1960's. The smoke of Satan is in the halls of the Church. If you are as sensitive as I am about the new changes being applied to the liturgy of the Mass, try to imagine Jesus asking you, "Do you love Me?" Stay focused on Jesus and He will eventually separate the wheat from the chaff. Oh yes! If you feel like looking for a better church, I will see you in fifty years and you will still be looking. It is not your body you should be weighing, it is your faith.

Ten Guidelines From God

Effective Immediately,
please be aware that there are changes YOU need to make in YOUR life. These changes need to be completed in order that I may fulfill My promises to you to grant you peace, joy and happiness in this life. I apologize for any inconvenience, but after all that I am doing, this seems very little to ask of you. Please, follow these 10 guidelines

1. QUIT WORRYING:
Life has dealt you a blow and all you do is sit and worry. Have you forgotten that I am here to take all your burdens and carry them for you? Or do you just enjoy fretting over every little thing that comes your way?

2. PUT IT ON THE LIST:
Something needs done or taken care of. Put it on the list. No, not YOUR list.
Put it on MY
to-do-list. Let ME be the one to take care of the problem. I can't help you until you turn it over to Me. And although My to-do-list is long, I am after all... God. I can take care of anything you put into My hands. In fact,
if the truth were ever really known, I take care of a lot of things for you that you never even realize.

3. TRUST ME:
Once you've given your burdens
to Me,
quit trying to take them back.
Trust in Me. Have the faith that I will take care of all your needs, your problems and your trials.
Problems with the kids? Put them on My list.
Problem with finances? Put it on My list.
Problems with your emotional roller coaster?

For My sake, put it on My list. I want to help you. All you have to do is ask.

4. LEAVE IT ALONE:
Don't wake up one morning
and say,
"Well, I'm feeling much stronger now, I think I can handle it from here."
Why do you think you are feeling stronger now?
It's simple.
You gave Me your burdens and I'm taking care of them. I also renew your strength
and cover you in my peace.
Don't you know that if I give you these problems back,
you will be right back where you started?
Leave them with Me and forget about them. Just let Me do my job.

5. TALK TO ME:
I want you to forget a lot of things.
Forget what was making you crazy.
Forget the worry and the fretting because you know I'm in control. But there's one thing I pray you never forget.

Please, don't forget to talk to Me - OFTEN! I love YOU!
I want to hear your voice. I want you to include Me in on the things going on in your life.
I want to hear you talk about your friends and family. Prayer is simply you having a conversation with Me. I want to be your dearest friend.

6. HAVE FAITH:

I see a lot of things from up here that you can't see from where you are.
Have faith in
Me that I know what I'm doing.
Trust Me;
you wouldn't want the view from My eyes.
I will continue to care for you,
watch over you,
and meet your needs. You only have to trust Me.
Although I have a much bigger task than you,
it seems as if you have so much trouble just doing your simple part. How hard can trust be?

7. SHARE:

You were taught to share when you were only two years old. When did you forget?

That rule still applies. Share with those who are less fortunate than you. Share your joy with those who need encouragement. Share your laughter with those who haven't heard any in such a long time. Share your tears with those who have forgotten how to cry. Share your faith with those who have none.

8. BE PATIENT:

I managed to fix it so in just one lifetime
you could have so many diverse experiences.
You grow from a child to an adult, have children, change jobs many times, learn many trades,
travel to so many places, meet thousands of people, and experience so much. How can you be so impatient then when it takes Me
a little longer than you expect to handle
something on My to-do-list?
Trust in My timing, for My timing is perfect. Just because I created the entire universe in only six days, everyone thinks I should always rush, rush, rush.

9. BE KIND:

Be kind to others, for I love them just as much as I love you. They may not dress
like you, or talk like you, or live the same way
you do, but I still love you all.
Please try to get along, for My sake. I created each of you different in some way. It would be too boring if you were all identical.
Please, know I love each of your differences.

10. LOVE YOURSELF:

As much as I love you, how can you not love yourself? You were created by me for one reason only -- to be loved, and to love
in return. I am a God of Love.
Love Me.
Love your neighbors. But also
love yourself.
It makes My heart ache when I see you
so angry with yourself when things go wrong. You are very precious

to me.
Don't ever forget.....

Men Are Just Happier People --

What do you expect from such simple creatures?

Your last name stays put.

The garage is all yours.

Wedding plans take care of themselves.

Chocolate is just another snack.

You can be President.

· Ah, children. A woman knows all about her children. She knows about dentist appointments and romances, best friends, favorite foods, secret fears and hopes and dreams.

· A man is vaguely aware of some short people living in the house.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

A married man should forget his mistakes. There's no use in two people remembering the same thing!

508 Babies Saved From Abortion as 40 Days for Life Closes

Another 40 Days for Life campaign has come to an end and we can look back now at lives forever changed. During these 40 days, there have been 508 lives saved ☐ that we know of because of God's response to your prayer!

From past campaigns, we expect the number to KEEP GROWING, as our local campaign leaders get their final reports in.

In the coming days, keep an eye on your inbox for some exciting news and developments that have been in the works during this campaign and for the past few months! But for today, let's look at some of the ways lives have been changed during 40 Days for Life and thank God for his abundant blessings during this time of prayer and fasting for an end to abortion.

Austin, Texas: A volunteer spoke a teenaged couple approaching the abortion center and learned that the girl just found out she was pregnant. She was afraid of telling her parents and wanted to go behind their backs to get a judicial bypass a court order in order to have an abortion. Her boyfriend was not in favor of the abortion, but reluctantly said he supported her because it was her decision.

I showed them what her baby might look like, based on how far along she thought she was six weeks, said the vigil participant. ☐ I also discussed alternatives and resources that I could connect her with. ☐

The couple walked into the abortion center, but soon left with smiles of joy and satisfaction. They had decided not to have an abortion, said the volunteer. Praise God! □

Attorney General Sues to Close Two Michigan Abortion Clinics

Michigan Attorney General Bill Schuette has filed a lawsuit in Eaton County Circuit Court to permanently close two abortion centers, the Health Care Clinic in Delta Township and the Women's Choice Clinic in Saginaw.

To ensure accountability and patient safety, Michigan law requires medical facilities to be incorporated with a licensed medical professional at the helm, he said. Strict enforcement of the law ensures medical clinics cannot put profit ahead of responsible patient care. □

The lawsuit follows one Schuette and the Michigan Department of Community Health filed earlier this year against the Lathrup Village-based WomanCare of Southfield abortion center saying it had been operating without a valid license since last summer. the state's top attorney has said the licensing is required of any private physician offices in which at least half of the patients get an abortion.

Right to Life of Michigan President Barbara Listing applauded the lawsuit, saying, □I laud Attorney General Schuette for following the law and pressing charges against these two abortion businesses. Those involved in the occupation of abortion are not above the law. Our attorney general has uncovered violations which should result in Health Care Clinic and Women's Choice Clinic being shut down.

One Year Until Voters Can Defeat Pro-Abortion Barack Obama

As Americans head to the polls in numerous states today for off-year elections, pro-life advocates are looking forward to the fact that, as of this past weekend, there is one year left until they can vote out pro-abortion President Barack Obama.

Marjorie Dannenfelser, the president of the Susan B. Anthony List, is one of those pro-life activists who is ready to replace the man who many consider to be the most pro-abortion president the nation has had since the infamous 1973 Supreme Court decisions allowing virtually unlimited abortions.

“One year from today, I know that at this very moment I’ll most likely either be on my knees in prayer or huddled around a computer with my staff watching results from key battleground states come in, Dannenfelser says. “You see, exactly one year from today is Election Day.”

That means we’re either one year away from finally putting a stop to the Obama administration’s deadly assault on unborn children and their mothers. One year until we can usher in authentic pro-life champions to the White House and Congress leaders who will fight for laws to protect our country’s most innocent lives.”

Dannenfelser added. “Or, we could be one year away from a massive loss that would set the pro-life cause back for generations.”

Personhood Amendment in Mississippi Likely Won’t Ban Abortion

Voters in Mississippi head to the polls today to consider Initiative 26, a statewide personhood amendment that would define unborn children as persons under the law starting at the point of conception. However, prior Supreme Court case law makes it appear the amendment will do nothing to ban or even limit abortions.

Much of the debate surrounding the measure has been confined to whether the personhood amendment would ban birth control (it would not) or abortions. While Planned Parenthood has clearly misled Mississippi voters as to whether the measure would ban non-abortifacient birth control, the pro-life supporters of the personhood amendment who have been informing state residents that it will “ban abortion” or “end abortion” are not presenting the full story.

The full text of the amendment reads: "Be it enacted by the People of the State of Mississippi: SECTION 1: Article III of the constitution of the state of Mississippi is hereby amended BY THE ADDITION OF A NEW SECTION TO READ: SECTION 33: Person defined. As used in this Article III of the state constitution, "The term "person" or "persons" shall include every human being from the moment of fertilization, cloning, or the functional equivalent thereof." Assuming the amendment is approved and assuming it does not succumb to state legal challenges from those who say the Mississippi Bill of Rights can't be amended via the initiative method, the personhood amendment will not ban abortions.
