

The Original Globe Reporter

Our Blessed Mother Mary

“Do whatever He tells you.”

Volume 4 Number 7 A Respect-Life Newsletter July 2012

“God knows we’re trying”

Our Lady of Mount Carmel

Sheep and Cattle

By Eugene A. Santoro
June 26, 2012

Many moons ago sheep and cattle were like water and oil. Sheep were unable to graze or quench their thirst with cattle, so the cattlemen thought.

Interesting how a whole industry is built around the fact that oil and water do not mix; the graphics arts business is thriving on that chemical reaction and reality.

We, here in the United States, have had a white majority of people since the beginning of our country. We differed in the way we worshiped God; but we eventually learned to respect people's differences. Not everyone accepted what was odd or different in their eyes and traditions. At least we had a beginning, water and oil did not have free will and intelligence, the problem with sheep and cattle was a man made myth.

These days there is an abundant amount of talk about the USA's slant toward the white race.

Supposedly, this country is designed to favor the white people. This country was designed to favor the working person, the entrepreneur, the gambler, the innovator, the dreamer. This country allows one the freedom to excel. The oppressive one from outside the USA dreams of becoming a US citizen. People stream into this country, legally and illegally from all over the globe. Some say we are a prejudice lot, favoring the white people, yet I see, all around me, signs of acceptance of all races and colors. Just turn on your television set and watch the commercials and programs. Who is one of the most famous and highest paid woman in America? Check out the neighborhoods, look at the different people of color in the entertainment industry, Look who is playing in every sport today, Check-out some of our news programs, and above all, look who is President of the United States of America. If someone says to you that the people in the USA are racist, tell them to get their head out of the salad bowl. We have come a long way baby; there is a lot of room for improvement, but don't look back look forward and cherish this moment in time. No matter what the habitual complainers try to sell you, we are human beings, persons with intelligence and free will; we are not sheep and cattle.

Partial Reversal of Obamacare Won't End Abortion Funding Concerns

With the Supreme Court expected to issue its decision on the Obamacare health care law on Thursday, the question for the pro-life movement is whether the decision will mitigate the concerns about abortion funding. Democrats in Congress approved the Obamacare law without any language in the legislation preventing abortion funding. Despite claims from pro-life Democrats who voted for the Obamacare bill, the law allows for abortion funding and pro-life groups warned about such abortion funding during the debate leading up to its passage. In the Senate, Democrats turned back the Nelson amendment to stop taxpayer funding of abortions in Obamacare and the final bill Congress approved and President Barack Obama signed never contained any abortion funding limits. Obama officials rely on the disproved argument that Obamacare, and a subsequent executive order Obama signed related to it, prohibit taxpayer funding of abortions under the law, even though pro-life groups almost unanimously say the bill and the order are not sufficient to stop abortion funding. <http://www.lifenews.com/2012/06/25/partial-reversal-of-obamacare-wont-end-abortion-funding-concerns/>

Woman With Down Syndrome Carries Olympic Torch to London

Now this is something inspirational that can get the world motivated for the upcoming Olympic games in London.

Recently, one of the torchbearers for the 2012 Olympics was Amy Hopkin, who has Down Syndrome. As the folks at Pro-Life UK noted, □ Amy clearly has a great zest for life and strives hard, as her own sporting record shows. Yet original medical prognosis was all doom and gloom. It is great that Amy has been so well supported by her family so that she and they have been able to show what is achievable. □ <http://www.lifenews.com/2012/06/25/woman-with-down-syndrome-carries-olympic-torch-to-london/>

Pro-Lifers Wait for One of the Biggest Abortion Decisions, Obamacare

Where were you on January 22, 1973? The day the Roe v. Wade and Doe v. Bolton decisions were announced by the Supreme Court which made abortion legal, in all 9 months for any reason, in our nation. I wasn't born yet, but I can imagine what it must have been like for pro-life advocates to wait for that decision and all the emotion they must have felt afterwards. Because I feel like that today.

At this moment, I am standing in front of the Supreme Court with the rest of our team and missionaries on Capitol Hill. Waiting. Waiting to see if today is the day that we find out whether or not Obamacare is constitutional. And whether or not our rights of conscience and freedom of religion will continue to be defended by those charged to protect them. <http://www.lifenews.com/2012/06/25/pro-lifers-wait-for-one-of-the-biggest-abortion-decisions-obamacare/>

Mother Dies Who Spared Her Baby From Abortion When Cancer Struck

28 year-old Chiara Corbella has died and at her funeral in Rome, there was joy amid the sorrow. In fact, there was a kind of triumph, of love over life and life over death □ one of those contradictory signs that makes no sense to an efficient world but is transcendently reasonable to the mind of faith:

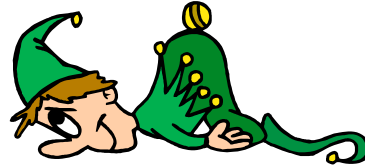

Chiara was happily married to Enrico Petrillo. They had already suffered the loss of two children [born with birth defects] in recent years. . . The couple became popular speakers at pro-life events, in which they shared their testimony about the few minutes they were able to spend with their children, David and Maria, before they died.

In 2010, Chiara became pregnant for the third time, and according to doctors the child was developing normally. However, Chiara was diagnosed with an aggressive form of cancer and was advised to begin receiving treatment that would have posed a risk to her pregnancy. <http://www.lifenews.com/2012/06/24/mother-dies-who-spared-her-baby-from-abortion-when-cancer-struck/>

Abortion Clinic Mocks God, Offers Sunday Discounts

Upset that pro-life advocates are increasing their presence at abortion clinics on Sundays to help women find abortion alternatives and pray, abortion facilities are apparently now offering women coupons for reduced-cost abortions on the holy day.

[http:// www.lifenews.com/2012/06/25/
abortion-clinic-mocks-god-offers-sunday-discounts/](http://www.lifenews.com/2012/06/25/abortion-clinic-mocks-god-offers-sunday-discounts/)

Puns for Educated Minds ...

1. The fattest knight at King Arthur's round table was Sir Cumference. He acquired his size from too much pi.
2. I thought I saw an eye doctor on an Alaskan island, but it turned out to be an optical Aleutian
3. She was only a whiskey maker, but he loved her still.
4. A rubber band pistol was confiscated from algebra class, because it was a weapon of math disruption.

5. No matter how much you push the envelope, it'll still be stationery.

Tim Tebow's Mom Keeps Pressing Pro-Life Cause

Pam Tebow, the mother of well-known pro- football player Tim Tebow, continues to press the pro-life message at pregnancy centers events across the country. Sharing her amazing story of rejecting an abortion and giving birth to Tim, Pam Tebow continues to help such centers raise critical funds necessary to reach women with abortion alternatives.

On Friday, Pam Tebow attended the event entitled, An Evening with Pam Tebow, sponsored by The Pregnancy Care Center of Martinsville and Henry County. The local newspaper has more on some of her talk. http://

[www.lifenews.com/2012/06/24/
tim-tebows-mom-keeps-pressing-pro-life-cause/](http://www.lifenews.com/2012/06/24/tim-tebows-mom-keeps-pressing-pro-life-cause/)

6. A dog gave birth to puppies near the road and was cited for littering.

7. A grenade thrown into a kitchen in France would result in Linoleum Blownapart.

8. Two silk worms had a race.

They ended up in a tie.

9. A hole has been found in the baseball park wall. The police are looking into it.

10. Time flies like an arrow.
Fruit flies like a banana.

11. Atheism is a non-prophet organization.

Half of Young Adults Don't Know Planned Parenthood Does Abortions

A question in a new survey Students for Life of America released last week should cause alarm for pro-life advocates working against Planned Parenthood, the nation's biggest abortion business. <http://www.lifenews.com/2012/06/25/half-of-young-adults-dont-know-planned-parenthood-does-abortions/>

Assisted Suicide, Euthanasia Fail to Grasp The Value of People

The failure to grasp the implications of intrinsic human worth plagues arguments for physician-assisted suicide and voluntary euthanasia. <http://www.lifenews.com/2012/06/25/assisted-suicide-euthanasia-fail-to-grasp-the-value-of-people/>

Notre Dame Starts Adult

Stem Cell Research With $5M Grant

With a $5 million gift from alumni Elizabeth and Michael Gallagher, Notre Dame is ramping up its adult stem cell research. <http://www.lifenews.com/2012/06/25/notre-dame-starts-adult-stem-cell-research-with-5m-grant/>

Casey Decision at 20: Pro-Lifers Make Progress on Abortion

Friday will mark the 20th anniversary of the Supreme Court's Planned Parenthood v. Casey decision. This case involved the constitutionality of several provisions included in Pennsylvania's Abortion Control Act and marked the most recent time that the Supreme Court reconsidered its holdings in Roe v. Wade. <http://www.lifenews.com/2012/06/25/casey-decision-at-20-pro-lifers-make-progress-on-abortion/>

Texas: Drunk Driver Faces Murder Charge for Killing Unborn Baby

A Texas man with a long history of drunk driving convictions is now facing a murder charge in the death of an unborn baby. <http://www.lifenews.com/2012/06/25/texas-drunk-driver-faces-murder-charge-for-killing-unborn-baby/>

Wisconsin Right to Life Endorses Four for Senate Race

The Wisconsin U.S. Senate race is a crucial one for pro-lifers who hope to retake the Senate from the pro-abortion Democrats who currently control the chamber and have defeated pro-life legislation and efforts to de-fund Planned Parenthood. <http://www.lifenews.com/2012/06/25/wisconsin-right-to-life-endorses-four-for-senate-race/>

Just 33% Back Pro-Abortion Obamacare as Supreme Court Decides

With the Supreme Court

expected to issue its landmark ruling in the

Obamacare case next week, polling data reveals just one-third of Americans support the controversial health care law.

□ The Supreme Court is likely to release its landmark decision on the constitutionality of the 2010 Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act within the next week. Americans show at best mixed support for the law and widely view the individual mandate that requires Americans to have health insurance as unconstitutional, □ a new Gallup analysis indicates. □ Although President Obama and his supporters predicted that Americans would become more positive about the law after it passed and they had time to better understand it, that has not been the case. Americans appear as negative or more negative now than they were when the PPACA was first passed. □ <http://www.lifenews.com/2012/06/22/just-33-back-pro-abortion-obamacare-as-supreme-court-decides/>

Huge Abortion Rate Decline Shows Pro-Life Progress

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention released a report this week which analyzes trends in pregnancy rates, birth rates, and abortion rates since 1990. Both the CDC and the Guttmacher Institute frequently release data on the incidence of abortion.

However, this report is unique because it presents the trends by race, age, and marital status. Overall, the news is good. The national abortion rate is falling fairly steadily and has declined by over 29 percent since 1990. Additionally, there has been a decline in the incidence of abortion among nearly all demographic groups. <http://www.lifenews.com/2012/06/22/huge-abortion-rate-decline-shows-pro-life-progress/>

WHO Releases Abortion How-To Guide: Best Methods for Killing Babies

The World Health Organization (WHO) has released a second edition of □ Safe abortion: technical and policy guidance for health systems. □ This document is updated from the original 2003 publication and runs 134 pages; it can be found here.

The new document details various methods of killing unborn children and the very best way, as recommended by WHO, to kill them.

□ It is a horrific read, □ stated Scott Fischbach, Executive Director of MCCL Global Outreach. □ Following these guidelines will assuredly kill women and their unborn children, especially in developing nations. Some of the recommendations, WHO admits, are based on □ low to moderate scientific evidence. □ They are truly reckless and deadly. □ <http://www.lifenews.com/2012/06/22/who-releases-abortion-how-to->

guide-best-methods-for-killing-babies/

Pro-Abortion Movement Finds Ultrasound Images Threatening

The pro-abortion movement finds itself once again between a rock and a hard place as technology advancements shed greater light on the humanity of the unborn child.

From the advent of 4-D ultrasounds to Facebook allowing parents to list their unborn child as a family member on their profiles, technology has only aided the pro-life cause. The latest trend to give voice to the voiceless child in the womb is the Photoshopping of sonogram images onto a picture of the mother's belly. <http://www.lifenews.com/2012/06/22/pro-abortion-movement-finds-ultrasound-images-threatening/>

11. Atheism is a non-prophet organization.

12. Two hats were hanging on a hat rack in the hallway. One hat said to the other: 'You stay here; I'll go on a head.'

13. I wondered why the baseball kept getting bigger. Then it hit me.

14. A sign on the lawn at a drug rehab center said: 'Keep off the Grass.'

15. The midget fortune-teller who escaped from prison was a small medium at large.

Former Abortion Worker: My Hands Were an Accessory to Murder

As a pre-abortion counselor, I occasionally had a pregnant mother ask me to come visit her in the recovery room once it was all over. Naturally, whoever accompanied her to the abortion clinic that day was not permitted in any of the medical areas, so requests like this were not uncommon.

Some of the weepier women (who were scheduled to be awake with local anesthetic for their abortions) would ask if I could join them in the procedure room to hold their hands during their abortions. I would attempt to deflect this question by reminding them that a nurse would be there to hold their hands, but a few would persist in asking if I could be there to hold their hands. More than a few times, I agreed. <http://www.lifenews.com/2012/06/22/former-abortion-worker-my-hands-were-an-accessory-to-murder/>

Republican Women Knocked for Opposing Sex-Selection Abortion Ban

Two Republican members of the U.S. House are under fire today from pro-life groups for voting recently against the ban on sex-selection abortions despite previous pro-life votes they had cast on abortion issues. <http://www.lifenews.com/2012/06/22/republican-women-knocked-for-opposing-sex-selection-abortion-ban/>

Poll: Young Voters Oppose Obama Abortion Record, HHS Mandate

Students for Life of America commissioned a new poll of young voters that finds they do not like the pro-abortion record of President Barack Obama and also don't favor his HHS mandate that forces religious groups to pay for abortion-causing drugs and birth control. <http://www.lifenews.com/2012/06/22/poll-young-voters-oppose->

obama-abortion-record-hhs-mandate/

Obama's Backwards Approach: Protect the State From the Church

The views about faith and religion that President Obama expressed in his Commencement Address at Notre Dame pave the way for his HHS mandate. He would protect the state from the church, not by privatizing faith, but by redefining it. <http://www.lifenews.com/2012/06/22/obamas-backwards-approach-protect-the-state-from-the-church/>

Research to Focus on called a turnip or carrot with impunity? It is within the context of this unrepentant bigotry that I analyze a hopeful story about increasing efforts to find the consciousness within the diagnosed unconscious. <http://www.lifenews.com/2012/06/22/research-to-focus-on-allowing-unconscious-patients-to-communicate/>

Abortion Doc Stripped of Medical License in Kansas

A Kansas-based abortion practitioner was stripped of her medical license after state officials learned that she had been violating Kansas abortion law when working with late-term abortion practitioner George Tiller. <http://www.lifenews.com/2012/06/22/abortion-doc-stripped-of-medical-license-in-kansas/>

Personhood Amendment Backers Target Pro-Life Candidates

The pro-life movement includes people and organizations working in a variety of ways to protect women and unborn children and to find the most effective and fastest solution to ending abortion. However, it appears one element of the pro-life community is targeting another for disagree with its strategy. <http://www.lifenews.com/2012/06/22/personhood-amendment-backers-target-pro-life-candidates/>

Amazing Miracle! Youth Pastor Wife Told He Is Cancer Free

Youth Pastor Jake Bouma has been battling Hodgkin Lymphoma and endured four grueling sessions of chemotherapy in hopes that God would perform a miracle and heal him...and God did just that! Witness God's hand at work as this faithful pastor and his wife receive the incredible news from their oncologist. Thank you to Jake and his wife for sharing this incredible and powerful scene with us! We pray for God's continued healing hand over your life and many blessings as you continue God's work in your ministry!

This precious moment was captured by Nathan Matta (from the documentary "Let's Do This: Facing Hodgkin Lymphoma"). Please visit Jake's blog to show your support: jakebouma.com.

The issue is not contraception. The issue is religious liberty. It's whether a government can force anyone to act against his or her conscience."

Fr. Jerry Deponai Pastor of St. Anthony's, Nanuet, NY
At the meeting of the Knights of Columbus Triune Council, June 25

16. The soldier who survived mustard gas and pepper spray is now a seasoned veteran.

17. A backward poet writes inverse.

18. In a democracy it's your vote that counts. In feudalism it's your count that votes.

20. If you jumped off the bridge in Paris , you'd be in Seine ..

21. A vulture boards an airplane, carrying two dead raccoons. The stewardess looks at him and says, 'I'm sorry, sir, only one carrion allowed per passenger.'

23. Two Eskimos sitting in a kayak were chilly, so they lit a fire in the craft. Unsurprisingly it sank, proving once again that you can't have your kayak and heat it too.

24. Two hydrogen atoms meet. One says, 'I've lost my electron.' The other says 'Are you sure?' The first replies, 'Yes, I'm positive.'

25. There was the person who sent ten puns to friends, with the hope that at least one of the puns would make them laugh. No pun in ten did.

OUR LADY of MOUNT CARMEL (1251)

According to the most ancient Carmelite chronicles, the Order has its origins with the disciples of the prophets Elias and Eliseus. They lived in caves on Mount Carmel. They honored the Queen of Heaven as the Virgin who is to give birth to the Saviour. When the reality replaced the symbol, the pious ascetics of Carmel were converted to the Christian Faith. In the 12th century, many pilgrims from Europe who had followed the Crusaders came to join the solitaries. A rule was established and the Order began to spread to Europe. Amid the many persecutions raised against the Order of Mount Carmel, newly arrived in Europe, Saint Simon Stock,

General of the Order, turned with filial confidence to the Blessed Mother of God. As he knelt in prayer on July 16, 1251, in the White Friars' convent at Cambridge, She appeared before him and presented him with the well-known brown scapular, a loose sleeveless garment destined for the Order of Carmel, reaching from the shoulders to the knees. It was given as an assurance, for all who died wearing it, of Her heavenly protection from eternal death. An extraordinary promise indeed, but one requiring a life of prayer and sacrifice.

