“God knows we’re trying”

God Knows we're trying.

By Eugene A. Santoro

April 05, 2013

Is the Church teaching about good and evil? Will children's normal and healthy growth be hindered? Children are aborted, molested, raped, tortured, dismembered for sale of body parts, and experimented upon. They're exposed to vulgarity, cruelty, pornography, murder, violence, hatred and mistrust toward our fellow man, family members included. Society accepts sin as freedom of choice. The natural transition from childhood towards a healthy adulthood is disappearing.

The Church should be teaching about: love, trust, faith, forgiveness, compassion, patience, empathy, generosity, and joy. (And they are) The Church should also be teaching about the downside of hate, distrust, no faith, no mercy, no compassion, no patience, and lack of generosity. Does God ever get angry? What happens when one dies with a mortal sin on one's soul? What happens if you do not live by the Bible? What happens when one does not live a Jesus centered life?

If the Church would remain a One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic institution and stop making changes to appease the Cafeteria Catholics, there would be no need to water down religious education to make room for courses such as Sex Education.

Signing a piece of paper swearing not to be a child molester or taking Sex Education Classes doesn't solve the problem. What child molester is going to admit he or she is a molester of children? The solution to our problem lies in the serious teaching of the Ten Commandments (First Letter of John, Chapter 5: 1-4). They're simple and economical to teach; and they have already been written and approved by God.

When I was a child, the Nuns scared the hell out of me and I mean that literally. I knew God saw everything I did and thought. I had a conscience; I was not an angel, but my transgressions had limits. We did not have the technology one possesses today; we were simple, respectful and God fearing.

I think we're going away from the teachings of our Father. I think the wrong teacher is leading us down the wrong road. I think we're not thinking, seeing or hearing; we are hastily reacting. This is no time to apply pressure, a major operation is required; and the nurse is called "Family" and the healer's name is Jesus.

Time, Talent, and Treasure

By: Eugene A. Santoro

August 21, 2012

There are 60 minutes in an hour and 60 seconds in a minute. I hope I have not enlightened you. Is it my imagination that there are only 2 days in a week and four months in a year? Are they making batteries stronger; is the earth moving faster around the sun? Is the moon playing tricks on us?

Why does May run into September with such speed? What happened to June July and August?

Never mind the months, what happened to the 20th century; how long have we been in the 2000nds?

Do I sound like someone awakening from a serious coma? I am sure some of you feel the same way.

It may have something to do with age. Time sure flies when you're busy. The way things are going in the world today, time is not moving fast enough; we need real productive hope and change from our leaders, and I, for one, am getting restless. Instead of wasting time, our leaders need to spend time solving our problems. We have all heard of "Time, Talent and Treasure" our congress and past and present presidents look at these three words and see, "Time as money, Talent as money and Treasure as money. In fact, if you look them up you will see they do define money. Those three words can reflect hope and change but our leaders see only the monetary version.

As a Catholic, I am struggling with all the stories, reports, confessions, conspiracies, lies, tragedies, and crisis bearing on, emanating from, and directed toward my Church these days. I realize that there are many groups and individuals who would cherish the idea of a permanent devastation and annihilation of the Catholic Church and faith. Someone said, "The smoke of Satan is in the halls of the Church." I am not choking yet, but someone should open a window.

I think we, as Christians, do not vote as if Jesus were with us in the voting booth. In my opinion, I think most of us (Including moi) are "Cafeteria Christians." I have known that Catholics have approximately 70 million members of the Church. Did you know that it takes 269 Electoral College votes plus one to win the election? About 50 million Catholic votes alone would elect a candidate to the office of President of the United States? Catholics alone could pick and choose any candidate they wanted elected. I am an independent voter; I vote for the individual who fits my agenda, Democrat, Republican, Libertarian, etc... As long as I think he/she leads a Christ centered life. We need compassionate, God fearing and God loving leaders. I believe this is the most important choice we will make in our lifetime. Vote for the man not the party. If your candidate wins, then you can party.

The defense attorney for abortion practitioner Kermit

Gosnell attempted to make the case to the jury today that workers for Gosnell are exaggerating the importance of movements in babies Gosnell killed. He was successful in getting three of the seven murder counts dropped related to the babies.

The grand jury report indicated one baby was moving and breathing for 20 minutes before an assistant came in and cut the spinal cord, just the way she had seen Gosnell do it so many times. <http://www.lifenews.com/2013/04/23/gosnell-attorney-baby-moving-20-minutes-after-neck-snipped-wasnt-alive/>

A Planned Parenthood clinic in St. Paul Minnesota is the latest to injure a woman in a botched abortion.

Brian Gibson, Executive Director of Pro-Life Action Ministries, informed LifeNews of the failed abortion and said photos taken from grainy video clearly show an ambulance stopped to unload at the nearest entrance to Planned Parenthood and then directed by abortion center officials to the main entrance deep in

Planned Parenthood's compound far from the street where it was loaded. <http://www.lifenews.com/2013/04/23/planned-parenthood-clinic-botches-abortion-ambulance-called/>

I very quietly confided to my best friend that I was having an affair.

She turned to me and asked, 'Are you having it catered'?

POTATOES

Well, a girl potato and a boy potato had eyes for each other, and finally they got married and had a sweet potato which they called "Yam". Of course, they wanted the best for Yam.

When it was time, they told her about the facts of life. They warned her about going out and getting half-baked, so she wouldn't get accidentally mashed and get a bad name for herself like "hot potato" and end up with a bunch of tater tots.

Yam said not to worry, no spud would get her into the sack and make a rotten potato out of her!

But, on the other hand, she wouldn't stay home and become a couch potato either. She would get plenty of exercise so as not to be skinny like her shoestring cousins.

When she went off to Europe, Mr. and Mrs. Potato told Yam to watch out for the hard-boiled guys from Ireland and the greasy guys from France called the French fries. And when she went out west to watch out for the Indians so wouldn't get scalloped. Yam said she would stay On the straight and narrow and wouldn't associate with those high class Yukon Golds or the ones from the other side of the tracks who advertise their trade on all the trucks that say "Frito Lay".

Mr and Mrs Potato sent Yam to Idaho P.U. (that's Potato University) so that when she graduated she'd really be in the chips. But in spite of all they did for her, one day Yam came home and announced she was going to marry Tom Brokaw. Tom Brokaw! Mr. and Mrs. Potato were very upset.

They told Yam she couldn't possibly marry Tom Brokaw because he's just a COMMONTATER.

Gone to Israel

A Jewish businessman in Chicago decided to send his son to Israel to absorb some of the culture of the homeland. When the son returned, the father asked him to tell him about his trip. The son said, "Pop, I had a great time in Israel. By the way, I converted to Christianity." "Oy, vey," said the father. "Vot haf I dun?" He decided to go ask his friend Jacob what to do. Jake said, "Funny you should ask. I too sent my son to Israel, and he also came back a Christian. Perhaps we should go see the rabbi and ask him what we should do." So they went to see the rabbi. The rabbi said, "Funny you should ask. I too sent my son to Israel. He also came back a Christian. What is happening to our young people? Perhaps we should go talk to God and ask him what to do." The three of them prayed and explained what had happened to their sons and asked God what to do. Suddenly a voice came loud and clear from Heaven. The Voice said, "Funny you should ask. I, too, sent my Son to Israel. . .

Eighteen Members of Congress Expose Kermit Gosnell in Speeches

Eighteen members of Congress went to the floor of the House today to do the job they said the mainstream media is not doing: talking about the murder trial of abortion practitioner Kermit Gosnell.

Obama Will be First Sitting President to Address Planned Parenthood

President Barack Obama, tomorrow, will become the first sitting president to address the Planned Parenthood abortion business. Obama originally planned to talk to the abortion giant tonight at its gala but pushed back the speech to Friday after massive criticism and suggestions he was ignoring victims of the Waco explosion.

Tomorrow, he will speak to 1,000 supporters of Planned Parenthood Federation of America. The big question is whether he will address the murder trial of abortion practitioner Kermit Gosnell. <http://www.lifenews.com/2013/04/25/obama-will-be-first-sitting-president-to-address-planned-parenthood/>

Poll: Voters Think Pro-Abortion Media Bias Behind Poor Gosnell Coverage

A new Fox News poll shows voters believe a pro-abortion bias in the media is behind the poor coverage of the Kermit Gosnell murder trial.

Most national media outlets are either ignoring the trial of the late-term abortion practitioner or providing every little coverage. A new report shows two networks have not covered it and one covered it for a mere 13 seconds. <http://www.lifenews.com/2013/04/25/poll-voters-think-pro-abortion-media-bias-behind-poor-gosnell-coverage/>

Pro-Life Congresswoman Exposes Gosnell on O'Reilly Factor

A top pro-life congresswoman exposed late-term abortion practitioner Kermit Gosnell, who is on trial for murder, on the O'Reilly Factor program last night. Due to a lack of national broadcast news coverage on these issues, Rep. Marsha Blackburn (R-TN) organized a letter with 71 of her House colleagues last week to ABC, NBC, and CBS. The letters demand these networks stop blacking out coverage on high-profile abortion controversies. <http://www.lifenews.com/2013/04/25/pro-life-congresswoman-exposes-gosnell-on-oreilly-factor/>

CBS Devotes Just 13 Seconds to Gosnell Trial; ABC, NBC Ignore It

For the first time in over a week, CBS covered the murder trial of abortionist Dr. Kermit Gosnell on Wednesday's CBS This Morning. But instead of a full report, as on April 15, Norah O'Donnell read a news brief that lasted just 13 seconds on the trial judge dismissing three of the murder charges against the Philadelphia physician [audio available here; video below the jump]. ABC's Good Morning America and NBC's Today on Wednesday failed to cover this noteworthy development in the case. Neither broadcast network has aired one second of reporting on the Gosnell trial on their morning and evening newscasts. <http://www.lifenews.com/2013/04/25/cbs-devotes-just-13-seconds-to-gosnell-trial-abc-nbc-ignore-it/>
